CINEeast 2014
....East Asian Film Series

THE MEMORY PROJECT:
ORAL HISTORIES OF CHINA’S GREAT FAMINE (1959-61)
Series co-sponsors: Rubenstein Rare Book and Manuscript Library

Nowhere to Call Home: A Tibetan in Beijing
(Jocelyn FORD, 2014, 76 min., USA/China, in Mandarin and Tibetan with English subtitles, Digital)
Tuesday, September 2, WHITE
Introduced by Prof. Ralph Litzinger, Cultural Anthropology

 Q & A WITH FILMMAKER JOCELYN FORD **

Seven Days in Heaven
(Essay LIU and Yu-Lin WANG, 2010, 93 min., Taiwan, in Mandarin with English subtitles, Blu-Ray)
Monday, November 10, WHITE
Introduced by Prof. Nicole Barnes, History

Trash Village
(ZOU Xueping, 2013, 82 min., China, in Chinese with English subtitles, DVD)
Friday, October 24, WHITE

Self-Portrait: Dreaming at 47 km
(ZHANG Mengqi, 2013, 77 min., China, in Chinese with English subtitles, DVD)
Tuesday, October 28, WHITE

Huamulin, Boy Xiaojiang
(LI Xinmin, 2013, 76 min., China, in Chinese with English subtitles, DVD)
Wednesday, October 29, GRIFFITH

Documentary filmmaker Wu Wenguang brings 3 young filmmakers to Duke for a 2-week residency, to deposit their work in the Rubenstein Library.

All films introduced by Prof. Guo-Juin Hong and followed by Q&A with filmmakers

All events begin at 7:00pm at Richard WHITE Lecture Hall or GRIFFITH Film Theater, Duke University

For more info, trailers, and directions: ami.duke.edu/screensociety duke.edu/apsi/events/films.html

Co-sponsored by The Program in the Arts of the Moving Image and The Department of Asian & Middle Eastern Studies